

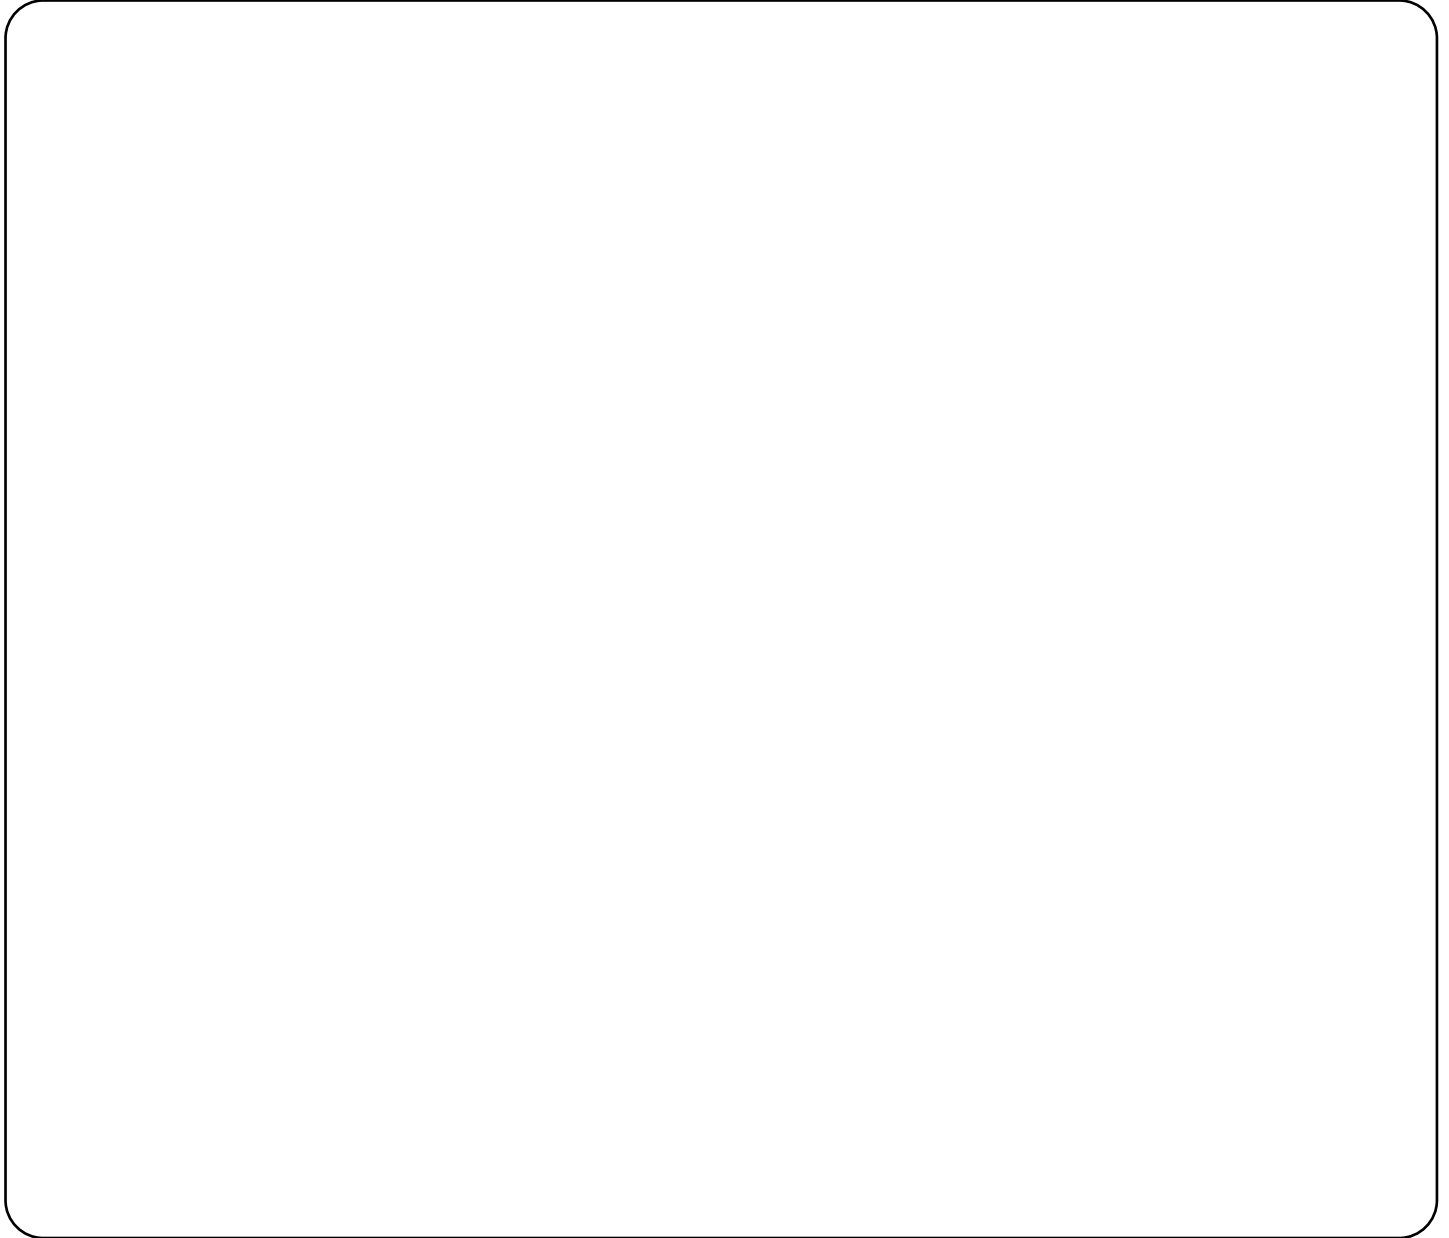

Graphic organizer: Main facts

Name: _____

Topic: _____

Write the main facts about the topic.

Write questions you have about the topic.

Graphic organizer: Animal facts

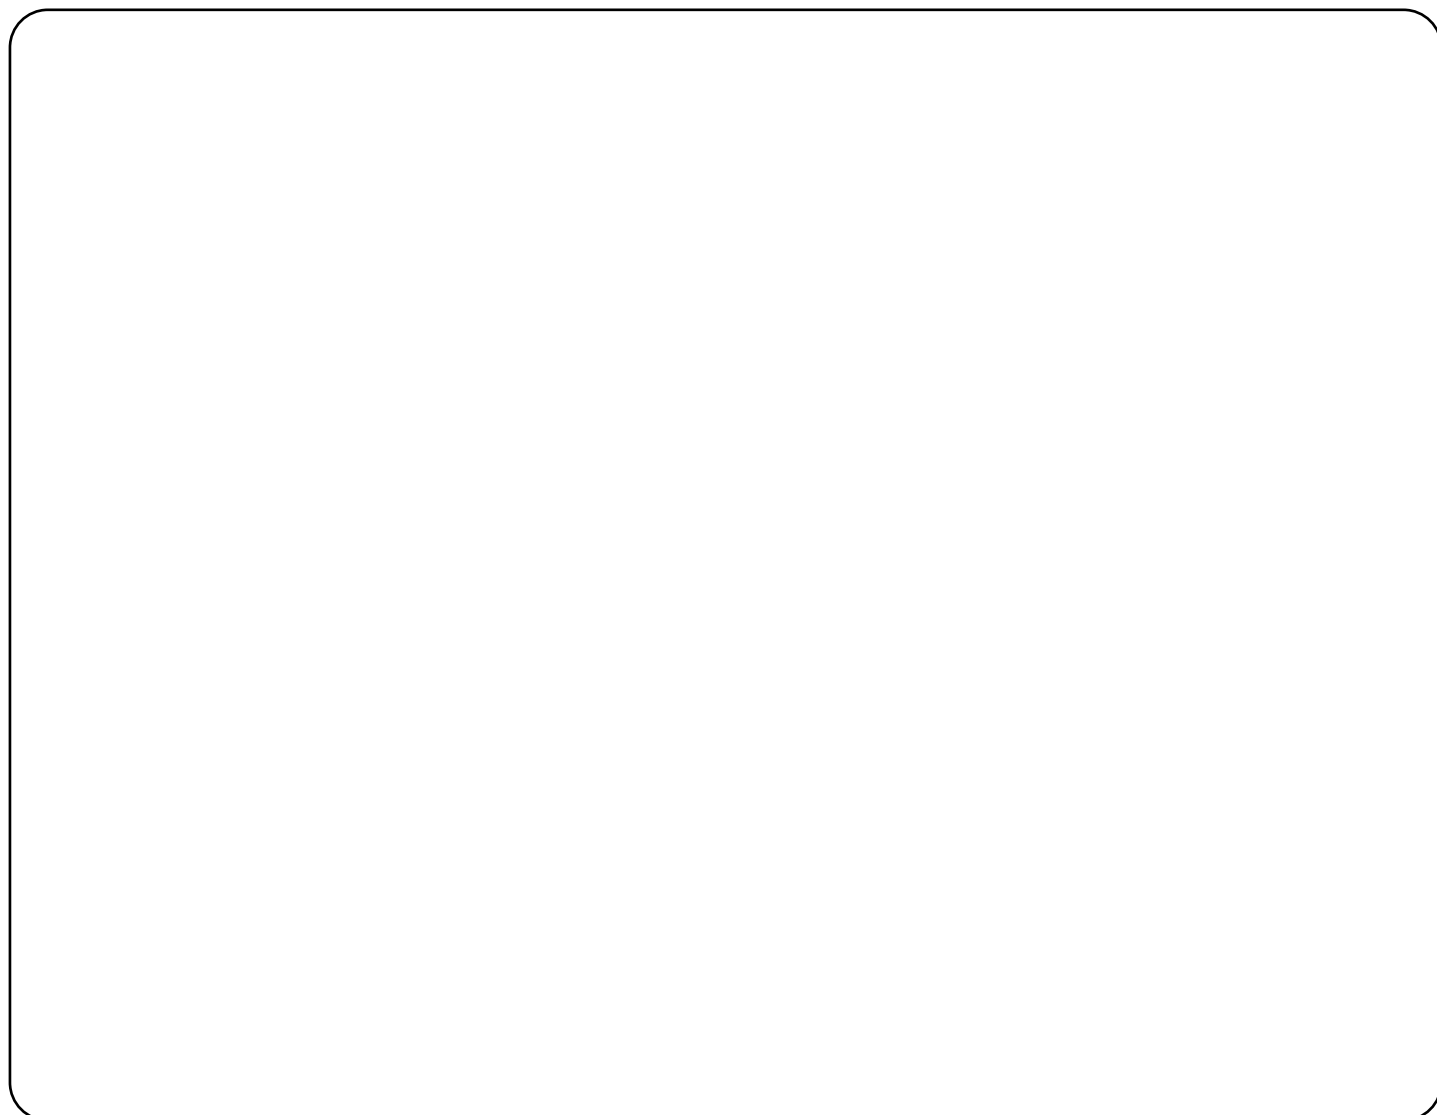

Name: _____

Animal: _____

Draw an animal from the book.

Write facts about the animal you have drawn.

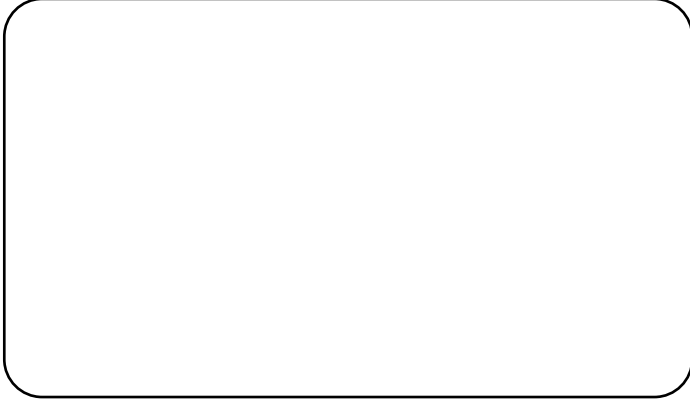

Graphic organizer: Story plan

Name: _____

Write a story plan. Include who the characters are, where the story is set, what problem these characters could face, and how they might resolve it.

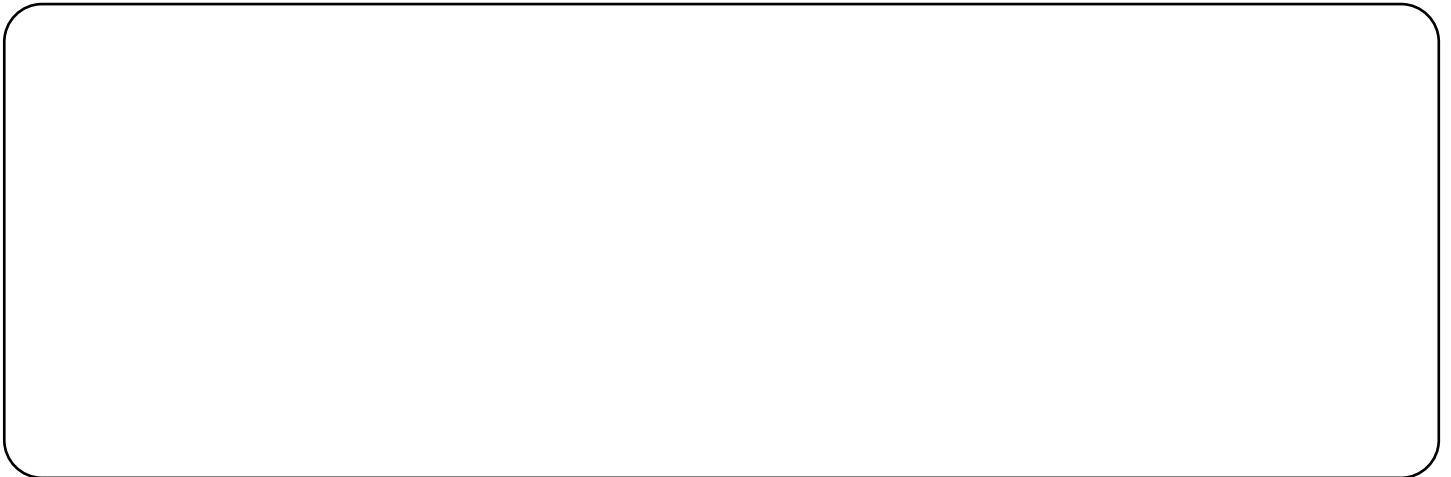

Characters

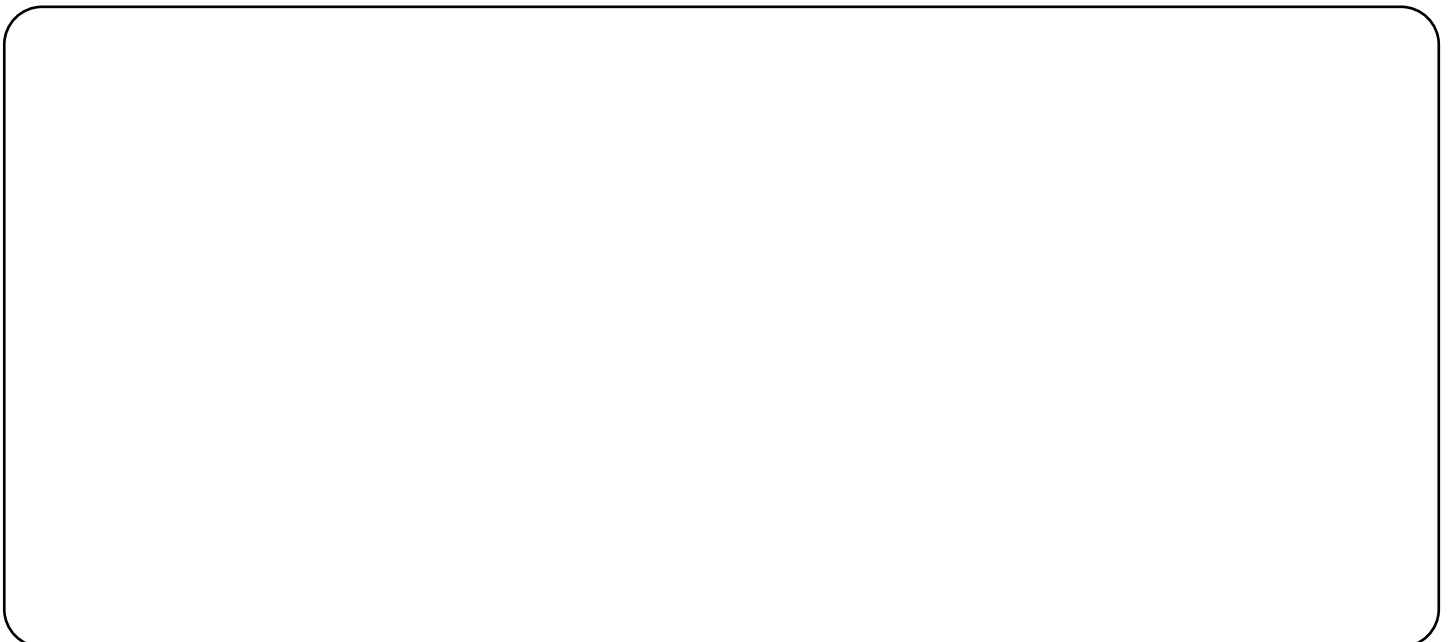

Setting

Problem

Resolution

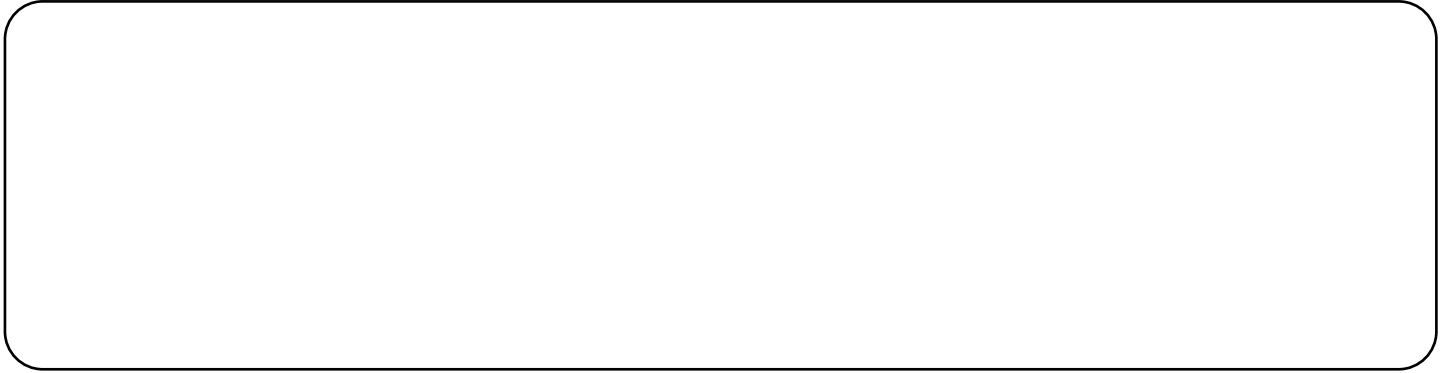

Graphic organizer: Persuasive text

Name: _____

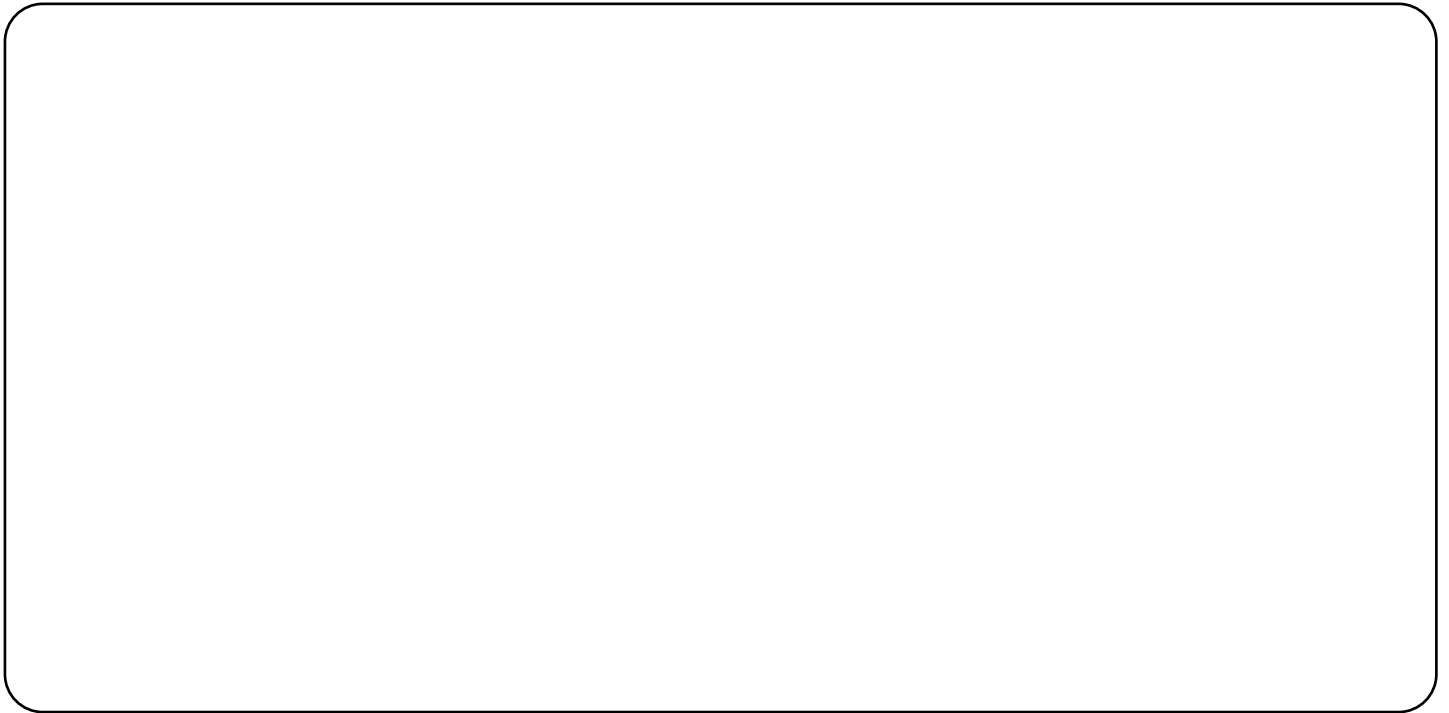

Topic: _____

Write a persuasive text that shows your opinion on the topic.

Your opinion

Reasons

Conclusion

Graphic organizer: PMI

Name: _____

Topic: _____

Write a list of the “plus,” “minus,” and “interesting” points about the topic.

Plus	Minus	Interesting

Graphic organizer: Know and Wonder

Name: _____

Topic: _____

What do you know about this topic? What do you still wonder?

Know	Wonder

Graphic organizer: Forming opinions

Name: _____

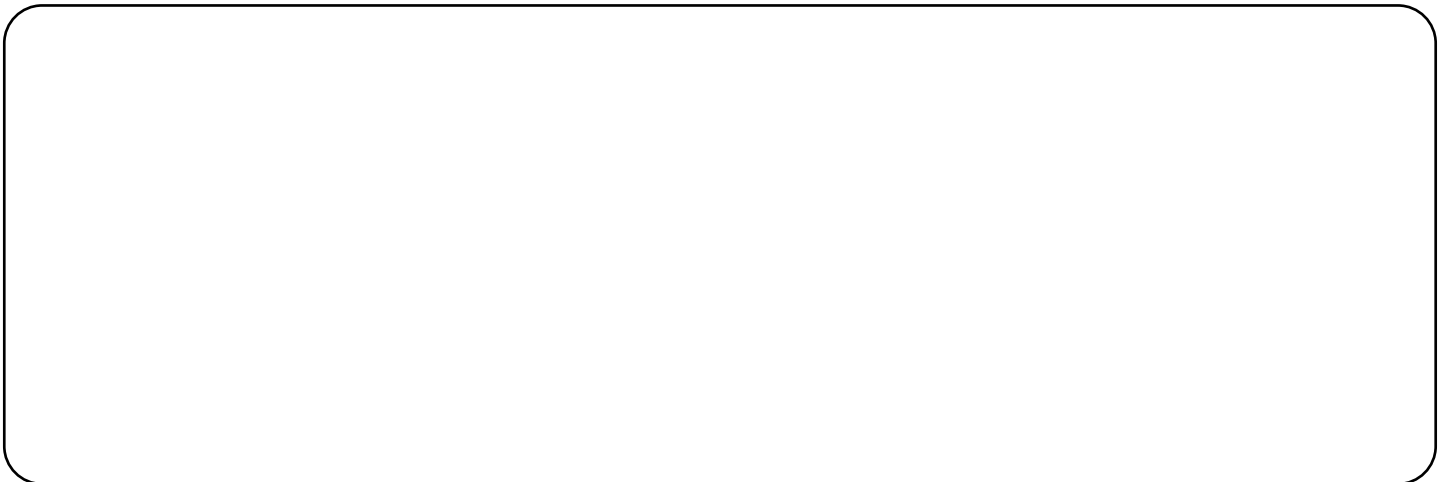

Topic: _____

Fill out all three sections about the topic.

Section 1: My initial opinion

Section 2: Gathering information: What I have learned

Section 3: My informed opinion

Graphic organizer: Know/Feel/Think

Name: _____

Topic: _____

What do you know about this topic? What do you feel? What do you think?

The graphic organizer is a large rectangle divided into three sections by lines meeting at a central point. The top section is a triangle labeled "FEEL". The bottom-left section is a trapezoid labeled "KNOW". The bottom-right section is a trapezoid labeled "THINK".

Graphic organizer: What is your opinion?

Name: _____

Topic: _____

Do you agree or disagree with these statements? Why?

Statement 1:

Why?

Statement 2:

Why?

Statement 3:

Why?

Statement 4:

Why?

Graphic organizer: What is the balance?

Name: _____

Fill out the reasons for the two topics and then use the continuum to find the balance between the two. Explain your perspective.

Topic 1: Reasons	Topic 2: Reasons

Mark on the line where you think the balance is.

Topic 1

Topic 2

Explain your perspective and how it can be achieved.
